

Meeting detail	Information
Date	15/05/2026
Time	9am to 6 pm
Group number	B(power rangers)
Chair	Six
Minute-taker	Sujal pathak
Agenda item	Notes
Confirm prototype scope	The group decided to create a simple cyber-safety game prototype with a welcome page, game instruction
Divide prototype tasks	Five people work on the welcome screen and instruction page by dividing the different part
Start building Prototype Version 1	The group created the HTML file
Upload evidence to GitHub	Screenshots, HTML files and planning documents were uploaded to the Week-2-Prototype-Start folder in GitHub.
Plan testing	The group tested all buttons, checked whether feedback appeared correctly and reviewed readability for the target audience.
Agree next steps	The group agreed to improve the design, add more challenges, create a score system and include sound effects in the next version.
Task completed today	Student responsible	Evidence uploaded

Create welcome screen and instruction page	All members	HOW TO PLAY Step 1: Read the Scenario Carefully There are 3 real-life scenarios (Email & SMS) that Coventry University students commonly receive. Step 2: Choose the Best Action You will be given 3 options. Choose the safest action to avoid the phishing attack. Step 3: Earn Points + Get Feedback +25 points for the correct/safe choice -5 to -25 points for risky or wrong choices You will receive instant feedback explaining the phishing red flags.  EVERYDAY DILEMMA PHISHING AWARENESS MISSION Step 4: Learn & Level Up Master the 3 key phishing red flags and improve your "Semester Health" score. Complete all missions to earn your Phishing Defender Certificate. ← BACK TO WELCOME ▶ START MISSION 01
Test navigation buttons and feedback messages	All members	Testing screenshots and review notes uploaded to GitHub
Next action	Responsible student	Deadline

Improve game design	All members	Next meeting
Add more safety challenges	All members	Next meeting
Create score system	All members	Next meeting